REMARKABLE

Meeting of Theological Class After Twenty-five Years.

WITH ITS RANKS UNBROKEN

A Sketch of the Occasion by One of Its Thirteen Lively Members-Not a Bachelor or a Widower

Among the Lot.

One of the happiest and most remarksble reunions in Virginia history was that at Hampton in July, when Rev. C. Braxton Bryan, the rector of St. John's Episcopal Church, gathered around him the members of his class with whom he graduated at the Theological Seminary twenty-five years ago. Rev. Arthur P Gray, of Amherst, under the head of "Twenty-Five Years After," gives the following rather breezy account of the TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AFTER. "In many respects that reunion Hampton, on July 8th, 9th and 10th, of the class of '78, Virginia Theological Seminary, was a unique and memorable affair. While of the five classes at the Seminary, from 1875 to 1878, nino have died and eight have dropped out or retired for disabilities, yet of the thirteen who entered the junior class, 1876, every man is alive, healthy, active and doing full work in the ministry. From the way they did justice to Bister Bryan's good "old Virginia" dinners, I judge there is not even a dyspeptic in the class. The youthful appearance of many of them was striking, and frequent was the remark to this or that one, individually: 'Why, you don't belong to that crowd?' Which remark being made to a particularly youthful-looking member of the class, brought forth a very broad smile and the reply: 'Why, I am the only grandfather in the class.' the class of '78, Virginia Theological Sem-

"Who will say that thirteen is an unlucky number? Why, there is not a bachelor in the class, not a widower among them, and every helpmate is a holpmeet, and that accounts for a great deal of their blessedness. Not only are they unbroken in ranks, but the class now numbers seventy, a number considered peculiarly blessed under the old dispensation, and it has not lost its virtue.

See that venerable looking gentleman "see that venerable looking gentleman with the white hair, dignified face and gold glasses? Old man? Why, don't you know what you are talking about, he has the baby of the class—only seven months old. God bless him! Eleven were present, and the other two, Rev. J. Harry Chesley and Rev. S. S. Ware, sent deep regrets and valid excuses.

A GRAND ILLUSTRATION.

A GRAND ILLUSTRATION.

"It was a grand illustration of how sweet a thing it is for brethren to dwell together in unity, for the characteristic of this class has been its unity, fellowship and esprit de corps. From New York and Florida, from city and country, from the mountains and the sea, they gathered at the call, and were well repaid. How those twenty-five years seemed to have vanished, and once again we were looking into the faces of the comrades of our youth, recalling the amusing and pathetic incidents of those days, feeling like boys again, laughing, jumping and swimming together. Oh! who would have missed it.

missed it.

"Once more together we knelt in class prayer and praise to the Father who had blessed us so; together we chanted the 'Gloria in Excelsis' and 'Blest Be the Tia That Binds.

That Binds.

"We organized the class by electing the senior member, Rev. Byrd T. Turner, as president and Rev. Arthur P. Gray as secretary. We rehearsed some of our experiences and gave special thoughts, and were so enggrossed we forgot the appointment of a good, hospitable friend to take us boat riding. We had our picture taken again in the same identical attitudes as twenty-five years ago that we might compare them.

"Wednesday night, July 8th, was the especial" service. Eleven of the class compare teem.

"Wednesday night, July 8th, was the especial service. Eleven of the class were in the chancel, and each took part of the service. Special hymns were chanted, special lessons read and special prayers offered to suit the occasion. Rev. P. P. Phillips made an address clear, strong and impressive, on the Uoy of the Ministry,' and Rev. Frank Page spoke on the 'Need of Men in the Ministry,' It was the same old Frank, in his strong, ringing, enthusiastic, practical and plain manner, as in the old Piedmont convention. There was a large congregation present, and afterwards a hearty, cordial old Virginia reception in the parish house.

MR. BRYAN'S CLASS.

MR. BRYAN'S CLASS.

"It was Brax," who got up this reunion; it was 'Brax' who invited them all to his home by the sea; it was 'Brax' who wrote three, four, and in some instances, five times to the same person, to make sure he would come; it was 'Brax's' swarm heart that was the soul of it all; it was 'Brax's' congregation who vowed it should be held nowhere else and each tried to outvie the other in showing hospitality to 'Mr. Bryan's class.' That was the only name by which we were known there.
And so army and navy, North and South, male and female, entertained Mr. Bryan's to his home by the sea; it was 'Brax' who wrote three, four, and in some instances, five times to the same person, to make sure he would come; it was 'Brax's' swarm heart that was the soul of it all; was 'Brax's' congregation who vowed it should be held nowhere else and each tried to outvie the other in showing hospitality to 'Mr. Bryan's class.' That was the only name by which we were known there. And so army and navy, North and South, male and female, entertained Mr. Bryan's class in royal manner. The class, as a recognition of this fact, and a memento of an occasion never to be forgotten, presented the dear old man with a chair on which was a sliver plate, bearing the inscription, 'To the Rev. C. B. Bryan,

Grateful Mother Cannot Express Her Heartfelt Thanks.

My son became afflicted with ecze ms at the age of three months and i was sorely perplexed. I went to see several doctors about it but they did him no good, so I tried the Cuticura Remedies according to directions and began to notice a rapid cure. So pleased was I with the success that I continued, and now I am so grateful to the Cuticura Remedies that I cannot express my heartfelt thanks. He is now two years old and all cured with no sign of the disease returning. Great thanks to the Cuticura Remedies."

WANT TO ORGANIZE MORE INFANTRY CO'S.

The State laws authorize but three regiments of infantry, or thirty-six companies in the military establishment. There are troop of cavalry. There can be but five more infantry companies, and there are already applications from seven or eight already applications from seven or eight places for authority to organize a company. Of course, all of these cannot be granted, and it has not heen decided which will be. Besides the Seventieth and Soventy-first Regiments, of twelve companies each, there are these unattached companies: Clifton Forge Rifles, Staunton Rifles, Roanoke Light Infantry, Roanoke Blues, Hoge Tyler Rifles, of Pulaski; Culpoper Minute Men. The Surry Cavalry is the only troop of horse in the State service.

The cause of Eczema is a too acid and general unhealthy condition of the blood. The terrifying itching and burning is produced by the overflow through the glands and pores of the skin of the fiery poisons with which the blood-current is overloaded. NEGRO PAWNED MANY WATCHES Pleaded Guilty to the Offense. Patriarch Charged with Stoning a Street-Car.

A negro instalment agent who seemed to have been doing a tremendous business, was before Justice Crutchfield yesterday morning with twenty-three distinct charges of watch stealing against him. The negro's name is R. R. Langhorn, and he represented the Richmond Specialty Company. His method was to take a number of watches out to sell, and instead, would pawn them. He disposed of twenty-three watches in this way, his peculatious extending over a period of more than six months passed.
When arrested by Sergeant Barfoot and Officers Thomas and McMul en me acknowledged his guilt, but insisted that it was his intention of returning the watches before he was detected.
In the Police Court he confessed that he pawned the watches, and he was sent

In the Police Court he contessed that he pawned the watches, and he was sent on to the grand jury to answer to the September term.

Only a few weeks ago Langhorn was proscutor in the Police Court against a negro charged with pawning a watch he had sold him on the instalment plan. John Plque, a gray-haired patriarch, aged seventy-six, was arrosted on July 1974 by Officer. Plling for throwing.

aged seventy-six, was arrosted on July 23d, by Officer Pillow, for throwing a rock at a street car. The pollecman saw him and arrested him on the spot.
"You are old enough to know better," said the officer.
"I wanted to knock that car off the track," was the reply.
He was taken to the station house and bailed for his appearance, but he didn't appear, and when Sergeant Werner saw him on the street Saturday he arrested him.

William James was charged by George Kinney with cursing and abusing and threatening to shoot him. Witness declared that George owed William some money and that there was a little argument, but that no "rush" words were used, and the case was dismissed.

Exana Carter and Maggie Tyler were each charged $2.50 for being disorderly on the street.

Ola Wood wanted to get George Nichola off, but she couldn't. George beat Ols, and he didn't tell a straight story, he went down for sixty days and surfered a fine of $10.

W. B. Bout and H. Sharp had a bout; $5 each.

Arthur Butts he Ocorge Thomas; $5.

Lizzle Williams cursed Lottle O'Dell and paid $2.50 for so dolng.

W. E. Dunston and W. F. Divine paid $2.50 each for engaging in a little setto.

John Cosby, colored, got drunk and went to sleep on a street car. He said so; cost $2.50.

Jeannette Turner a well known figure in police circles, was arrested for rolling a young man and gathering in $10. Shy confessed to the theft, and was sent on to the grand jury.

John Bolling is miniature negro, as is Bolling Crump. The latter said he saw the former go into a blacksmith shop and take two cents.
